"Welcome to Rodger Nishioka"

Dear friends,

I know you will be pleased to welcome Dr. Rodger Nishioka to the Presbytery of Arkansas for the June 6 meeting of the Presbytery at First Presbyterian Church of Benton.

Rodger Nishioka holds the Benton Family chair in Christian education as an associate professor at Columbia Theological Seminary in Decatur, GA. While he teaches in the area of Christian education and practical theology, he specializes in ministry with youth and young adults and has completed a research project comparing the participation of young adults in mainline Protestant congregations and non-denominational independent Christian movements.

Prior to his joining the faculty at Columbia, Rodger served for 12 years as denominational staff in youth & young adult ministry for the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). Rodger received his undergraduate degree from Seattle Pacific University, his master's degree in theological studies from McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago, a Doctor of Divinity degree from Austin College and his Ph.D. from Georgia State University in Atlanta.

He has published several articles, chapters, and books largely focused on ministry with youth and young adults and the educational ministry of the church as spiritual formation.

Rodger is the son of an honorably retired Presbyterian pastor and, as he says, "Is evidence that you can be a pastor's kid and still love Jesus."

Dr. Rodger Nishioka

At the meeting, Rodger will preach during the 10:00 service of worship and at 1:00 will also lead a presentation of the Church's understanding of and outreach to young persons who are, "spiritual but not religious."

Looking forward,

Bill

Resource Center News

by NiAnn Thompson, Resourcing Director
Phone 501.663.2424, ext. 104
Tuesday-Wednesday, 7:30 a.m. to 5:45 p.m.

First, thank you to everyone who expressed sympathy and condolences to me and our family on the sudden death of my husband J.D. Thompson on April 29. We have felt and continue to covet your prayers and support.

PRESBYTERY FACEBOOK PAGE

If you have events that you want the people of the Presbytery to know about, post them to our Facebook page at www.facebook.com/PresbyteryOfArkansas. Rev. Anne Russ at First, North Little Rock (Argenta) at 501.374.7677 or email revruss@gmail.com will be glad to answer your questions.

RESOURCE CENTER RAVE REVIEW

Sometimes the rave reviews compliment a resource a teacher/leader has used and then graciously passed on to the Resource Center. Director of Christian Education Susie Wright, Westminster, Hot Springs endorses John Ortberg's book "Who is this Man? The Unpredictable Impact of the Inescapable Jesus" which looks at the influence of Jesus on art, science, government, medicine and education. Book is accompanied by study guide divided into five sessions. She says "It is a wonderful Lent or anytime book, which our class eagerly read. We tackled one of the stand-alone chapters each week."

BIBLE STUDIES FOR THE SUMMER

"Journey Thru the Bible" uses the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible and a leader's guide to provide questions to help readers get into the main text, information on the setting, language and meaning for first hearers/readers, life applications, and a daily plan for reading the whole Bible verse by verse. YOUR Resource Center has several journeys from the Old and New Testaments.

"Genesis to Revelation" is keyed to the New International Version of the Bible on three levels: what does the Bible say, what does this passage mean and how does the scripture relate to my life.

Student books either address one book or up to 8 books of the Bible, and there are teacher books for the Old and the New Testaments.

"Push It: Young Adults Engage the Bible" uses the New Revised Standard Version and is designed by young adults for young adults to encourage asking critical questions of scripture and connecting scripture with their lives in weekly or monthly groups, retreats, mission projects or fellowship groups. We have all four volumes.

SPRING READING POSSIBILITIES

"Sacred Pause: A Creative Retreat for the Word-weary Christian" by Rachel G. Hackenberg offers twelve light-hearted chapters to "reconnect with the beauty of words".

"The Gifts of Imperfection: Let Go of Who You Think You're Supposed to Be and Embrace Who You Are, Your guide to a wholehearted life" by Brené Brown is a #1 New York Times Best Seller which shares ten guideposts on the power of Wholehearted living, a way of engaging with the world from a place of worthiness.

An illustrated book for all ages "Let There Be Light" by Archbishop Desmond Tutu retells the biblical story of creation in seven days.

WE ARE OFFERING MULTIPLE COPIES OF MANY OF THE TITLES IN THE COVENANT LIFE CURRICULUM, AN EXCELLENT BUT AGING SET OF BOOKS FOR CHRISTIAN STUDENTS OF ALL AGES. I CAN BRING THEM TO YOU AT THE JUNE 6TH MEETING OF PRESBYTERY AT FIRST, BENTON IF YOU WILL LET ME KNOW YOUR WISHES BY MAY 29.

This year I will be working each Tuesday and Wednesday (7:45-5:15) and can easily be reached other weekdays by email, text or cell phone (501.337.2360).

Self-service hours in the Resource Center are from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday, Thursday and Friday. If these latter days are the best for your visits, I'll gladly gather resources for you to pick up and as usual, I'll mail resources to patrons on the days I'm here.

AR Presbyterian donations Help Build Homes in Tornado Zone

March 19 was a banner day for seven homeowners in Mayflower! On that day seven new houses built by Christian Aid Ministries, in collaboration with Inter-Faith and Partners Disaster Alliance, a long-term recovery group, and Habitat for Humanity of Faulkner County were dedicated. Five more houses built by Apostolic Christian World Relief were dedicated March 21 in Vilonia! Habitat and Vilonia Disaster Recovery Alliance, a long-term recovery group, collaborated on the five.

Mayflower homeowner cuts ribbon to her new house, March 19, 2015

Arkansas Presbyterians were there, too. Ruling Elder Sharon Hankins, member of 2nd Presbyterian Church Little Rock, and Teaching Elder Ike Brighton, honorably retired and living in Maumelle, have recently been elected co-chairs of IFPA.

Presbytery of Arkansas generosity is helping with the recovery. Thanks to 65 separate donations totaling $37,355.42 from Arkansas Presbyterians last year, your Disaster Preparedness and Response Committee has committed $30,000 to long-term recovery (so far). This money went to the two long-term recovery groups and to a joint sub-committee known as the Unmet Needs Table. (Case managers and funding organizations meet to review and fund survivor clients' unmet needs.)

The DPRC thanks you for your donations and reminds you that this recovery and the need for funding will continue until the last unmet need is met.
