Graham Memorial, Forrest City Hosts Presbytery Meeting

By Reporting Clerk NiAnn Thompson

The 136th Stated Meeting of the Presbytery of Arkansas was hosted Friday and Saturday, October 6-7, 2017 by Graham Memorial Presbyterian, Forrest City. The meeting was preceded by a workshop, the second in a series, led by presbytery staff member Rev. Michael Vinson on "Mapping Congregational Transformation." 115 people signed in, and Ruling Elder Ruth Hamilton moderated. Friday evening Rev. Dr. David Johnson, Austin Presbyterian Seminary, presented "Reformed Spirituality and Current Trends, Patterns and Practices." Worship included a sermon by Candidate Margaret "Maggie" Alsup, liturgies led by REs Mike Easley and Sam Harris, music by organist Alex Turner and the Chancel Choir directed by Ruth Ann Vowan. The Lord's Supper was served by intinction with Revs. "Mike" McCracken and Fern Davis officiating. Worship offering benefitted improvements in accessibility and service to dementia patients at Presbyterian Village in Little Rock, totaling $1,232.

Maggie Alsup, Candidate approved for ordination

On Saturday morning Temporary Stated Clerk Leslie Belden led a devotional on spiritual health of congregations. First, Rogers Administrative Commission completed their work and was dismissed, Rev. Bill Galbraith, HR was dismissed to Indian Nations Presbytery, Rev. Michael Clark (ELCA) was enrolled as a temporary member and the clergy compensation report for 2017 was approved. Commissioners heard the treasurer's report, and Belden updated them on several Administrative Commissions and synod's review of presbytery's 2016 minutes. Presbytery voted to approve property sale by Presbyterian Church of Bull Shoals and to limit speakers to three minutes on each motion, and read the report of the Task Force on Staffing Model. Under the report of the Coordinating Team, commissioners voted to increase the number of at-large members on Committee on Leadership Development to seven and on Committee on Ministry to 16, allow discretion of Committee on Nominations if they are unable to satisfy all standards in documents, affirmed five nominees to fill unexpired vacancies, four members of Committee on Nominations and the formation of the Pine Bluff Administrative Commission.

Under the Committee on Leadership Development's report, Presbytery voted to enroll Jill Acree of Conway as an inquirer into ministry and, after lengthy discussion regarding Candidate Krista Denné, approved "alternate means of allowing CLD to develop assessment tool, due to test anxiety and guidance of Office of General Assembly Cooperative Committee on Examinations, and that she be given the option of taking this tool in lieu of Biblical Exegesis exam..." Rev. Dr. Johnson returned to present "Encouraging Opportunities for Spiritual Development across the Generations."

Committee on Ministry noted their approval of Rev. Doug Miller at Holiday Island Presbyterian; Rev. Rita Wilson, HR as transitional pastor at Central, Fort Smith; Rev. Mike Yarman at Kirk of the Hills, Fairfield Bay; and Rev. David King, HR as transitional pastor at First, Searcy. Presbytery sustained the exam of "Maggie" Alsup for ordination on Oct. 22 as chaplain at Lyon College, honored Rev. Robert Hadley who retired on June 1 and approved Rev. Clare Kelley's retirement on Oct. 1. COM presented keyrings to ministers new to the presbytery on the anniversaries of their ordination and heard Rev. Ben Bateman, HR, ordained for 60 years, speak on the presbytery as his church family. A referral was made back to COM to adjust wording to the Ministerial Residence Program agreement of First, Fort Smith and First, Clarksville. General Presbyter Stewart Smith read into the minutes a resolution thanking and celebrating the ministry of Britton Travis Varn, staff resource for youth of the presbytery, who is resigning to relocate at the end of the year.

Commissioners elected 59 people put forward by Committee on Nominations to offices, committees, ministry areas or specific tasks, and heard from Future of the Church Ministry Area an update on the expected new presbytery website, moving funds to support education and preparation of Commissioned Ruling Elders to Committee on Leadership Development, and Future's subcommittee on grants. Videos were presented by Presbyterian Village and the Subcommittee on Honduras Ministry, and Presbyterian Foundation brought greetings. A report from Mission of the Church Ministry Area included updates on year-end evangelism grants still available, The PLACE 2018 Educational Event, and Disaster Preparedness flood buckets needed for delivery to hurricane survivors.

Presbytery approved the Polity Committee's request that Coordinating Team focus the Feb. 9-10, 2018 presbytery meeting on conflict resolution and how to have difficult conversations as people of faith. Motion was tabled until more conversation can happen for Temporary Stated Clerk to write to Office of Public Witness of "our perceived value of the Johnson Amendment and...to advocate for it" regarding political campaigning in churches.

Rev. Rebecca Spooner spoke on "Spirituality as a Caregiver at Any Age" and led small group discussions. Administration Ministry Area reported on a search committee for interim staff for youth and invited support for 2018 budget of $804,310, a reduction from 2017 budget. Adjournment came at 3 p.m.

(Commissioners may consider submitting this summary as report to local Sessions)

Disaster Prep--Flood Buckets and Hygiene Kits Needed

Demand is high for Church World Service emergency cleanup buckets and hygiene kits after recent hurricanes. The Ferncliff Disaster Assistance Center needs restocking of both buckets and kits, which are offered to equip survivors after a flood, tornado or other disaster. At the October 6 and 7 presbytery meeting in Forrest City, many people picked up buckets and lids for their church, to fill them and return them to Ferncliff or to the February presbytery meeting. Filling buckets and kits is a wonderful way for people who can't travel to the disaster site, to be involved in disaster ministry.

Here's what you'll need for a Church World Service emergency cleanup bucket:

- One five-gallon bucket with resealable lid (If bucket has been used, clean well but do not use if it has held chemicals of any kind.)
- Four scouring pads
- Seven sponges, including one large
- One scrub brush
- Eighteen reusable cleaning towels (e.g. Easy Wipes)

- One 50 oz. or two 25 oz. bottle(s) of liquid laundry detergent
- One 16-28 oz. bottle of liquid disinfectant dish soap
- One 12-16 oz. bottle of household cleaner that can be mixed with water (no spray bottles)
- One package of 48-50 clothespins
- Clothesline, two 50 ft. or one 100 ft.
- Five dust masks
- Two pairs non surgical latex gloves
- One pair work gloves, cotton with leather palm or all leather
- 24-28 heavy duty or contractor type 30-45 gallon trash bags on a roll and removed from carton
- One 6-9 oz. bottle of non-aerosol insect repellent

All cleaning items must be new - all liquid items must be capped and securely tightened. Place all items into the bucket, making sure they are packed securely to avoid damage during shipment. Snap the lid on tight and seal with packing tape.

Value: $75.00

Processing fee: $3.00 per bucket

Provide hygiene kits to make all the difference between sickness and health for struggling families.

Here's what you'll need for a Church World Service hygiene kit:

- One hand towel measuring approximately 15" x 28" to 16" x 32" (no fingertip, bath, dish towel or micro-fiber)
- One washcloth
- One wide-tooth comb removed from the package
- One fingernail or toenail clipper removed from the package
- One bath-size bar of soap in the wrapper
- One toothbrush in the package
- Ten standard size Band-Aids

All items need to fit inside a one-gallon plastic zipper closure bag. Remove the excess air from the bag and seal before boxing. Do NOT add any extra items or toothpaste. A tube of extended expiration date toothpaste will be added to each hygiene kit just prior to its final journey.

Value: $15.00

Processing fee: $2.00 per kit

Note: Donations of money are also needed: Ferncliff is able to make buckets for $35 or less due to volume discounts compared to about $60 when an individual goes out and purchases the items. There's a similar cost savings for kit supplies.

Board of Pensions Reminders

Now through Friday, October 13, employers (churches) can model and build employer agreements (offer of benefits) for 2018. Go to pensions.org for more details.

October 13 is the deadline for employer to offer employer agreements.

October 30 - November 17 - employees make decisions and accept benefits offered. This is an open enrollment period for employees to get into dental plan or other options offered by the Board.

Important Note: All benefits will not automatically be rolled over. Only the pension, medical, and death and disability will be rolled over. If a pastor is enrolled in the optional dental plan, it will not be rolled over without completing an employer agreement. The hope is that all churches will fill out an offer of benefits and all pastors and employees will make decisions on the employer agreement.

Call to Health has been extended until November 17. There is still time to earn points for a lower deductible and for $100.00 Amazon gift cards.

For more information go to pensions.org or call Board Resources at 1-800-773-7752.

HOW WILL YOU CELEBRATE REFORMATION SUNDAY (OCTOBER 29) ON THE 500TH ANNIVERSARY OF ITS BEGINNING?

Many of our churches are including special music, different liturgies, a bagpiper, guest speakers and leaders in worship and fellowship open to their communities on this day. Please show and tell what your congregation does on Oct. 29 so we may include these accounts or photos in the November Banner (deadline Monday, Nov. 6).

ADVENT BEGINS ON SUNDAY, DECEMBER 3

In 7-1/2 weeks Advent will be upon us! How's your planning going? YOUR resource center can help with seasonal studies, special worship services, children's/youth/adults activities ideas. This should get you started:

-Children's booklet "What Is Advent? Preparing for Christmas" Handy guide for children explains the four weeks before Christmas as a time to prepare our hearts, learn the symbols of Advent/Christmas/Epiphany, and why we have Christmas Eve services through puzzles, making an Advent calendar, Advent word search, worship celebrations, mazes, word searches and more.

-Eight Nativity stories are re-told for children ages 3-6 in "Deep Blue Bible Storybook: Christmas" which contains background information about the Gospel of Matthew and the Gospel of Luke for adults and for children, a question with each story to engage the reader and listener, and prayers and songs for Christmas. Brightly illustrated.

-For pastors and worship leaders: "Feasting on the Word: Advent Companion" edited by David L. Bartlett, Barbara Brown Taylor and Kimberly Bracken Long is a thematic resource for preaching and worship NOT following the lectionary but providing a different option during Advent. Subtitled "A thematic resource for preaching and worship," hardback book suggests an Old Testament and Gospel passage for the Sundays of Advent, Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. Resources for sermon preparation, ready-to-use liturgies, orders of worship, hymn suggestions, midweek services and children's sermon suggestions are also part of this book.

-Multiple (7) copies of Marcus J. Borg and John Dominic Crossan's book "The First Christmas: What the Gospels Really Teach About Jesus' Birth" are available for group study. Glimpse the old familiar story with new eyes that treat the nativity stories of Jesus by asking what did and what do these stories mean, in their first-century context and in their understanding and commitment today. Includes attention to the two genealogies of Jesus, use of Hebrew scriptures as prophecy, use of words like "Lord" and "Messian" and contrast between light and dark.

Reminder: I am in the Resource Center on Monday and Wednesday and available by phone (cell 501.337.2360) or email other days.

(Your Resource Center receives funding from the presbytery's Mission of the Church ministry area.)

BULLETIN FROM MISSION OF THE CHURCH MINISTRY AREA: EVANGELISM GRANTS AVAILABLE

Four grants of up to $400 each are being offered to congregations desiring to improve upon or create avenues to evangelize. These grants can be for signage, advertising, a website or website improvements, a special invitation to your neighborhood to attend worship, etc. You have good news to share in your communities, and with the help of a grant from the presbytery, you can do it.

To apply, contact the moderator of Mission of the Church Ministry Area by email: ktpearson@suddenlink.net. Please include in your email a brief description of the project, how much the whole project will cost, how much (up to $400) is being requested, and how specifically the funds will be utilized. Requests should be authorized by the local church Session. If you have questions, you may contact CRE Kelly Pearson. The deadline to receive requests is December 1. Ideally, if your congregation has applied for and received a grant to attend NEXT Church or Big Tent conferences or a grant from the Unified Mission Emphasis in 2017, you might allow other congregations to apply.

Last Call to Attend Pilgrimage

This month, the foliage will make your Pilgrimage experience even more memorable. The fall Pilgrimage is October 19-22. Mark your calendars now, and make your reservation (below).

When you attend your Pilgrimage, you experience the love of Jesus Christ as lived out in practical ways. You learn practical tools for walking the Christian path day-by-day. You sing with joy, taste good food, and you laugh out loud. AND, you have a chance to experience all of this away from the day-to-day cares of the world.

"It felt like a preview of Heaven," a participant said about their Weekend.

Each Pilgrim comes for his or her own reason. Some come for a "retreat" from the world's cares; others participate to reconnect with Jesus. Some come just because they've heard it was fun. Whatever the reason, almost everyone who has attended their Pilgrimage has reported they were so glad they came.

All costs except room and board are donated by volunteers. Room and meals cost $200 for the three-day Pilgrimage, but scholarships are available upon request. (Arkansas Presbytery helps support these scholarships.)

To register online, or to learn more, just go to the Pilgrimage website, at www.pilgrimage-arkansas.org.
